The Drowsy Chaperone:

The Ellicottville High School Drama Club is pleased to announce their upcoming production, The Drowsy Chaperone. While not as well-known as many of the more standard musicals, The Drowsy Chaperone is a relatively new show which, in 2006, won five Tony Awards as well as nine Drama Desk Awards.

The musical uses a device known as “a show within a show” where the main character, Man In Chair (Gabe Snyder), invites the audience to listen with him as he plays his favorite record, The Drowsy Chaperone, which is a little known musical from 1928. As he puts the needle down onto the record, his modest New York studio apartment magically transforms into the Morosco Theater in 1928 where the production is about to begin.

We are soon introduced to the wealthy, yet senile, Mrs. Tottendale (Lindsey Swalcy) and her butler, Underling (Brett Kryniski) in her mansion. Just as we learn that there is going to be a wedding that very day, the entire cast breaks into the scene including the groom, Robert Martin (Evan Quinn), his best man George (Cory Yarnes), the producer Victor Feldzieg (Meganne Chapman), his ‘travelling companion’ Kitty (Callie Rounds), two gangsters disguised as pastry chefs (Lucas Adams & Jon Hawkins), the Latin Lover Aldolpho (Gabe Hauri), the bride Janet Van der Graf (Kayleigh Coolidge), The Drowsy Chaperone (Rylie Aldrich), and Trix The Aviatrix (Kelsey Tomczak). As evidenced from the line up, you can see that we are in for a zany ride.

Rounding out the cast is: Allyson Fisher, Jaclyn Freundsuh, Hannah DeChane, Allison Calarco, Erin Quinn, Bri Winship, Sammi Van Wicklin, Joesph Freundsuh, Emily Durandetto, Ices Decker, Jaylee Evans, Kirkblind Kaleta, Heli Kongats, Maddy Kilby, Gabby Squires, Abby Ploetz, Dairinn Finn, Walter Woodarek, and Emma Steffenhagen.

Also in the production are Ginna Hensel (Percussion) and Kourtney Robinson (Flute) in the Pit Orchestra, Louisa Benatovich as the Stage Manager and Alex Hunt running the light board.

The production runs Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 15-17 at 7:00 pm at the High School. The show is Directed and Conducted by Jon Wilder with Vocal Director, Pat Waldron; Choreographer, Elizabeth Weber; Accompanist, Jamie Edwards; and Producer, Crystal Wilder. Tickets are $7 at the door.

Ensuring Student & Staff Safety

In the wake of recent tragedies at schools in the United States, I have been asked: "What is ECS doing to ensure the safety of students and staff?" Please be assured that we at ECS take safety very seriously and are constantly revisiting our safety plans and procedures. But, what exactly does this mean? I would like to explain a little more of what we are doing to ensure the safety of everyone at school; from the most obvious to the less visible steps.

The most obvious step we take to ensure student safety may very well be the drills we conduct through the year. Fire drills have been around for decades and we continue to have many of these every year. More recently, we have been conducting at least four lockdown drills a year. We have already had two this year and they ran quite smoothly. After the first drill, the staff that was responsible for "sweeping" the building met to discuss observations. Small necessary changes were noted, addressed, and, when the second drill took place, the corrections were noted. We still have two more lockdown drills to run this year and will be doing so in the near future.

The next most visible aspect to ensuring student safety may, perhaps, be the new cameras at entrance doors. Visitors wishing to access the school during the school day now have to "buzz-in" and before the doors are unlocked, a staff member can actually see the person and ask questions via a camera intercom system. In addition to these cameras, the school recently installed over 60 cameras throughout the building to assist with safety. These cameras have greater resolution, allow for magnification and have better recording/playback capabilities than previous systems.

Throughout the school year, ECS has a safety committee that meets to review current plans/procedures, and recommend changes/updates. This committee is comprised of administrators, teachers, support staff and Board of Education members. One of the items this committee developed in conjunction with support from county, state and local resources is a flip chart that every staff member has. This flip chart allows staff to very quickly access information including detailed steps of how to proceed with various emergency situations. This flip chart is discussed often at faculty meetings, where questions are clarified, suggestions made, etc. Speaking of meetings on safety, a good portion of the upcoming staff development day on March 16th will be devoted to this very topic. In addition to meetings at the school, superintendents in the area will also be meeting with law enforcement to learn more about what we can do, discuss various plans/programs, etc.

Within the school, we also recognize the importance of focusing on students and their needs. Guidance counselors and the school psychologist stand ready to meet with students as needed and offer help and support. If necessary, they may conduct a threat assessment to determine the level of help a student needs. We are also always looking to learn how we can best help students in this area. Administration and staff members are registered for some upcoming workshops this spring regarding best practices for helping students experiencing emotional stress. I would also like to let parents know that you can ALWAYS reach out to the school to request assistance for your child/children or to report a concern.

Ellicottville is a special and tight knit school community that has always worked hard to ensure the safety of students and staff. Continued planning, awareness and learning will help to ensure that Ellicottville remains a safe place. If you ever have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at 699-2368 extension 1301.

Odyssey of the Mind Teams

Students Hard at Work Preparing for Competition

Four dedicated Odyssey of the Mind teams are meeting and working after school and Saturdays to prepare solutions to this year's Odyssey of the Mind problems.

Coach McGuire's team, Triathlon Travels (Chloe Carson, Jayden Douth, Liam McGuire, Mackenzie Noga, Xavier Peters, Adrian Taylor and Adelaide Weber), is designing a team powered vehicle that must curl, joust, and travel a race course with some humorous coaching and commentary.

Coach Blakesslee's team, Classics Mockumentary (Bianca Bush, Tobias Coburn, Teaghan Finn, Tea Fuller, Kayedance Hayes, Mike Kerns and Anna Nazareth), will be performing an unusual take about a classic story, with some interviews of original and not-so-original characters. Who is telling the truth? The judges will decide!

Coach Lafferty's team, Animal House (Adrynn Dedrick, Audrey Hurlburt, Katie Krotz, Emma Lafferty, Allison Pfeffer, Sara Weber and Kara White), is hard at work building their balsa wood structure to hold as much weight as they can place on it in 8 minutes, while performing a skit about the structure and how it happened to get to where it is.

Coach McNeil-Wedvik's team, Stellar Hangout (Kiera Baldwin, Katie Bless, Grady Byroads, Kyle Robinson, Olivia Tighe, Oliver Wedvik and Skye Wood), is going to have the judges laughing over their interpretation of what happens when space travelers meet in an intergalactic hangout. Their performance promises to be transformational!

Regional Competition will be held all day on March 24th at Allegany-Limestone Central School. Good Luck ECS!

Modified Basketball Update

By Coach Keenan

The Boy's Modified Basketball team concluded its season with a combined 7th and 8th grade record of 3 wins against 19 losses. This was a group that had several players with little or no experience, and it took them some time to develop some basketball skills. Several players showed great growth throughout the season and worked hard to learn new skills quickly.

Once again we were a combined team with two 7th grade players, Ben Fisher and Zach Westfall from West Valley. These two joined Aidan Murray, Braylon Wyatt, Zach Clark, Yahir Velazquez-Garcia, Errol Moore, Gian Nuzzo, Koda Curtis, Liam Jimerson, Gavin Dietrich and Tristen Farnum to make up the 7th grade roster.

Seventh grader, Jaxson Czapla was asked to "play up" with the 8th grade squad due to a shortage of boys available from that grade. Jaxson was joined by Isaac Alexander, Dalton Gonzalez, Maddox Bush, Andrew Bolya, and Josh Coolidge. 9th grader Hunter Bomberly also joined this group and showed the most improvement of any of the players learning very quickly in his first year of organized basketball.

I hope the 8th graders work hard in the off season and wish those that want to play JV ball next year the best of luck. I am also hopeful that the 7th graders also work on their skills during the off season and I look forward to seeing them again next year.

Eagle's Nest News

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Eagle's Nest is a certified program, through the CRLA organization. CRLA is the College Reading and Learning Association. We are the first high school in New York State to earn this certification. Any tutor who completes the training and tutors a minimum of twenty-five hours will be internationally certified. Many colleges are affiliated with the CRLA organization so certified tutors will often be able to join the tutoring staff at their college without going through the training process.

OUR NEWEST TEAM MEMBERS

Two tutors have earned their CRLA tutoring certification, Gabe Snyder and Sammi Lin. To earn certification, a student must complete one year of training, which is every Tuesday from 3-4. In addition, the student must complete twenty-five hours of tutoring. This is a lot of work on top of an already busy schedule of academics and sports. Congratulations Gabe and Sammi!

WANT TO BE A TUTOR?

We are no longer taking applications to be a tutor for this year but keep us in mind for next year.

NEED TO BE TUTORED?

Are you worried about your grades? See Mrs. Bauer about getting a tutor.
